

The hidden panel is a core feature of the Zen Grid Framework and is an easy way to store non essential but important information in a sliding panel that can be toggled on or off on the screen. The panel is automatically displayed on the page when you publish any module to the panel1 to panel4 position.

For more information regarding the hidden panel please refer to the documentation in the Zen Grid Framework knowledgebase

.